The mission of the MS Genetic Counseling program is to provide an exemplary learning environment in which students obtain the knowledge, skills, and competencies to provide culturally sensitive, ethical genetic counseling services in a variety of clinical settings.

The UNCG program provides a supportive environment to help students gain experience, expertise, and the necessary tools to become successful genetic counselors. I loved my time at UNCG!

- Lauren Masso (Griffin), Class of 2014